

28th Annual Beach Goes Pops Dates Set for April 21st, 2018 in Historic Pass-A-Grille Beach, Florida

St. Pete Beach, FL, February 21st, 2018 – The Beach Goes Pops Committee is happy to announce the date for this year's Beach Goes Pops to be held on Saturday, April 21st, 2018 in historic and picturesque Pass-A-Grille, Florida. Beach Goes Pops, now in its 28th year, is very proud to offer yet another exciting year of outstanding music, food and fun. We are thrilled to have John's Hopkins All Children's Hospital as the charity for Saturday's event. The money raised will go to creating a treatment room for children undergoing radiation and chemotherapy.

Beach Goes Pops is the result of the combined efforts of the City of St. Pete Beach, the dedicated Committee as well as the 180 plus volunteers who coordinate and help to produce a day and evening of FREE CONCERTS on beautiful and historic Pass-A-Grille Beach in St. Pete Beach, Florida. We especially appreciate and thank the City of St. Pete Beach and our sponsors. Please check additional event details at our website: www.Beachgoespops.com.

On Saturday, April 21st, 2018, the festivities kick off at 12:00 pm with food, beverages and live music until approximately 10:30 pm as we welcome three outstanding performing bands for your musical entertainment.

We are thrilled to present Peace of Woodstock as the first band to take the stage playing from 3:00 until 5:00 pm. They'll be playing all of your favorites and are sure to amaze with their jaw dropping tribute to Woodstock covering all of the incredible artists.

We are elated to have the TomKats Jazz Orchestra take the stage at 5:50 and play until 7:30. They're an 18 piece band that for over 30 years have been performing jazz and swing music throughout the West Coast of Florida.

We are honored to bring the Alter Eagles to the stage at 8:00 playing until 10:30. They're unbelievably close to the original and will have you singing along to all the favorites.

This will be a memorable day and evening of music that you won't want to miss.
